

HELIX ARTS.

Creating change since 1983.

Trustee

Are you an enthusiastic individual who wants to make an impact and has a desire to influence change?

Helix Arts is a small passionate team working hard to make a difference in communities across the North East region. We need eager individuals to join our Board of Trustees to help us take Helix Arts forward from a strong position as we reach our 40th anniversary as a leading arts charity.

We are seeking people who want to make a difference by joining Helix Arts at this exciting time in our development.

As an organisation, we want to take positive action to diversify our board. We are keen to reach people with a range of skills and backgrounds: participatory artists, HR and marketing expertise, passionate residents of local communities and young adults under 30.

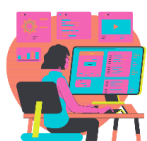

Helix Arts is an arts charity that has collaborated and connected with local people, partners and artists for almost 40 years to help improve their health, their prospects, their communities, and their environments. We are a unique arts organisation that is part of a thriving voluntary and community sector.

Why should you become a trustee?

As a trustee, you will have the chance to:

- Enhance the lives of the community and priority groups which Helix Arts works with
- Challenge yourself by sharing your skills in a new environment
- Become inspired and motivated to share your voice and instigate future growth
- Contribute and collaborate on one or more sub-committee / task and finish groups
- Network with other like-minded individuals with a shared passion for participatory arts
- Support the strategic development of an established arts charity

As part of the Helix Arts Board of Trustees, you will form part of a team that will have experience in one or more of the following areas:

Digital strategy

Financial management, income generation and enterprise

Collaborative partnership and co-production

Funding, trusts and foundations

Public policy, public affairs, cultural and creative policy

National and local government and statutory bodies

Human Resource and Volunteer Management
